That Is Why Alice Dabney

when he was startled by the greaning, screaming and shricking of a woman. Taking lone steps and occasionally running a little the officer was seen at the scene of the trouble. He found Alice Dabney, a negre woman, stretched on the ground in a drunken condition, and yelling at the top of her toice. The patrol wagon was called and the woman taken to the station-house. She half-way solered before taking a look at Justice Crutenfold yesterday morning, and then she told a most reamrkable story.

Out of Annexation. Out of Annexation.

The Board of Supervisors of Honrico county will meet next Friday in special session to take action in regard to the changed conditions brought about by the recent annexation of county territory to Richmond Turing its session the board will confer with Judge R. Carter Scott. of the Henrico Circuit Court, in regard to the dismissal of the county police.

There are now five regular efficers and hetween twenty-five and thirty special policeman, who are paid on a commission basis for every arrest.

The argument in favor of this movement ton hais for every areas.

The argument in favor of this movement is that, on account of the loss to the dity, the county will no longer be able to afford resular officers. All the special nen, however, it is said, will be retained.

TRIP TO SOUTH.

Will Visit Mississippi.

Ward, one of the most universally ex-teemed members of the Council, and one of the veterans of that body will leave Richmond on December 22d for Natchez, Mbss., where he will spend about to days visiting relatives. He will be ac-companied by his daughters, Misses Mar-zaret and Florence Wood. Mr. Wood will return to the city in time to attend to his councilmanic duties, which, as chairman of the Flournes Committee, are both im-portant and responsible.

Christmas Stockings!

There are plenty of gifts; stores and windows full at every turn. But selecting the right gift for the many-aye, "there's the rub." You can buy pretty and useful things-but to get the very article the person wants is the true philosophy of gift-giving. That is why we are writing these lines to suggest a few things that will help you. Ours is a REAL BOOK STORE, and book-lovers will find here much to interest them. All Richmond is "rubbing elbows" at our counters, looking over our magnificent collection of Gift Books, beautifully illustrated; also the standard and popular books in biography, travel, poetry, art and fiction. From our large variety of Teachers' Bibles, Text Bibles, and every other kind we feel we can satisfy any reasonable wish. Use a choice selection of Prayer-Books and Hymnals in all styles and bindings. We we will not "take a back seat" before any concern in Leather Goods, which always have been one of our strong points. and these are gifts that folks like-Lap Tablets, Portfolios, Desk Pads, Hand Bags, Pocketbooks, Card Cases, Gents' Letter Cases. Writing papers are always a welcome gift, and we carry the finest line in the fashionable sizes and shapes. A present that lasts all the year! Yes, a calendar; and we have the choicest from the largest houses of the world, by the most noted artists, and at prices in reach of every one. Our display of pictures is striking, and they appeal to every lover of art. We have a choice selection of the most popular ones, and the latest by Fisher, Christy, Underwood, Grefe and others. One of our special specialties are antiques, Hand-Hammered Brass and Copperware in a variety of Eastern designs—Candle-stocks, Fern Dishes, Lamps, Coffee Pots, Tea Pots, Jardinieres, Gongs, etc. The Norseware is distinctly new and unique, and make handsome Christmas presents. An Ideal Fountain Pen, such as Waterman's, is just what somebody you know is in need of. Perhaps he's got now one of another make,—a poor one that clogs up, and it will be a charity to give him a good one. And it will not make much of a crimp in your assets to buy it.—$2.50. up to any price. Christmas would not be Christmas without the children, and we have provided for them. Fine line of Books, Games and other things to please them, which can be seen when you call. We haven't mentioned all the good things we have, but offer these few hints as an earnest of our ability to help you in Filling the Christmas stockings. The rest of the story is told in the store. HUNTER & CO., Inc., Richmond, Va.
